If you do not want your items to go 1/2 price please indicate before printing tags so that they will be properly labeled as so.

Volunteer workers

For anyone interested in getting to shop early on Monday August 31st 6pm-9pm, you must volunteer to work a 8 hour shift. (an additional 8 hour shift must be completed, to bring a guest) Our workers are very important to the sale and we could not do this without your help. If you cannot make the shift you have signed up for than please make arrangements with Sheila. If you do not show up for a shift and do not make prior arrangements, you will forfeit your opportunity to volunteer for the next sale.

Participant items

All items will be reviewed at check-in for stains, tears or missing parts. Please do not be offended if we can not accept some of your items at check-in. We are striving to make this a quality sale for you the participant. This in the long run benefits us all! Kiddy Kats reserves the right to refuse any item deemed non-sellable, as well as pricing any item that is missing a price.

Pick-up of unsold items will be on Monday September 7th 10am-6pm at the Center for Rural Development. Your items will be sorted neatly in the container you left at drop off with your number visible for easy access. Any and all items not retrieved after 6:00pm Monday will be donated to the current charity we are helping. You may choose to view the items unsold and at this time you can still donate if you want. Only handwritten Index cards from each sold item will be kept until all checks are completed and mailed. At the time of pick-up, you may request to view the index cards from the items that you sold.

If using the bar-coding tags, you will be able to print items sold or unsold on a inventory list from the website!
